This is an opportunity here.

Would you forward the contacts and companies we will be touring please. I must run all contacts through our own lists to be in compliance with U.S. State Department.

Good! I am looking forward to hear any updates from you. I just got news about Russian economical sanctions that Putin put on Turkey. As you know, Turkey WAS the biggest exporter of weapons to Russia... now would be an excellent time for an American genius to steal this market . . .

This sound alike a great opportunity. Before committing I have items to shuffle around.

Thank you for such an opportunity. I'll be working on figuring out how to get to Russia on the 5th.

All the best

Pete.

Dear Pete,

Happy late Thanksgiving! I have something, as Americans say, to add to your «pile of blessings»! I just got the confirmation from the largest Russian gun manufacturer that they have cleared all security hurdles and would love for you to tour their facility on Monday, December 7. This one day trip for you and me would follow meetings in Moscow with representatives of other manufacturers on Sunday, December 6. I know that you are still preparing your schedule and don't yet know if you can arrive in Moscow a few days ahead of the main NRA delegation, but I wanted you to know that this would DEFINITELY be profitable for you if you could!

I am also attaching the (near) final Moscow itinerary for the NRA delegation that you'll now be leading — it is extremely interesting (with a last night surprise!). Everything should be clear with my background notes on the people you'll be meeting and places that you'll be visiting, but you can call or write to me at any hour (don't worry about the time difference between Iowa and Moscow) with questions or suggestions.

I look forward to your decision about your «Brownell-only» early VIP trip! It's very important.
